PROGRAM DETAILS...

Saturdays at 8 p.m.

5 Loch Shiel - The dramatic and beautiful landscapes around Loch Shiel provide some of the scenic backdrops to the Harry Potter films. The area has also been a hotbed of traditional music for generations, as Mary Ann Kennedy shows.

12 All Women - This week focuses on music from some of today's leading women artists, including Òran na Mnà (A Woman's Song) -- an original Gaelic composition by Maggie MacInnes (pictured at right) "linking the voices and feelings of women from centuries past to the present day."

19 Springsong - This program presents the full flavours of the spring in life affirming acoustic sounds from the coastal communities of the Atlantic archipelago.

26 Clear Air - Celtic music's beloved slow airs and laments take center stage this week, along with songs set to these evocative melodies.

Sundays at 12 noon

- 6 Romani (Gypsy) Voices
13 Motherhood
20 Singing
27 To End All Way

Sundays at 6 p.m.

6 One of the nation's best collections of young musicians, the Atlanta Symphony Youth Orchestra, playing two very different pieces. Also on the show is the 2006 Sphinx Competition Junior Laureate and winner of the Blount-Slawson Competition.

13 "What The Heck Was That Piece" highlights show celebrates the adventurous spirit of youth with kids who performed extraordinary performances of out-of-the-way music.

20 A rollicking arrangement of Leonard Bernstein's "America" with six hands on one piano is the highlight of this edition of From the Top, recorded on Florida's Treasure Coast.

27 The youngest of the young performers.

Pipedreams

Sundays at 8 p.m.

6 Passacaglia...we trace the evolution of this powerful compositional format from its beginnings as suggestive street 'dance'.

13 Pre-empted for Special "Around Knoxville" with organist Christa Rakich

20 The Joke's On Us...share in humoresques, scherzos, fantasies and other compositions done up with a sense of fun and surprise. Who says the organ must always be so serious?

27 Organ Plus...another exploration of the remarkable repertoire for pipe organ in consort with other instruments and voices.

from NPR®

Fridays at 8 p.m.

4 Ernestine Anderson and the Diva Jazz Band at the Mary Lou Williams Women in Jazz Festival at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. -- Ernestine Anderson opens the program. "Chatty and engaging," says the Washington Post "Ms. Anderson moved from nonchalant swing to sass." The Diva Jazz Band follows, with Musical Director Sherrie Maricle on drums. Anat Cohen's clarinet on a Benny Goodman tribute is a highlight.

11 Benny Golson All-Stars Remember Clifford / Joe Zawinul & WDR Big Band Play Weather Report -- The trumpet is the tie. Roy Hargrove and Eddie Henderson join Golson & Co. to remember Clifford Brown (1930-1955). Then Zawinul, Miles Davis's keyboard man, plays "In a Silent Way" and more with the magnificent European radio orchestra, at North Sea Jazz. Thanks to Radio Netherlands.

18 Terence Blanchard Celebrates Louis Armstrong Day at the 2007 University of Michigan Jazz Fest --

The University of Michigan Jazz Ensemble opens.

Then, New Orleans trumpeter Terence Blanchard (pictured) talks about the work of Louis Armstrong before performing in concert with his quintet.

25 Stefon Harris and Blackout! at the American Museum of Natural History in New York -- Vibraphonist Stefon Harris and his quintet play music from his albums Evolution and African Tarantella: Dances with Duke. The song "Sunset and the Mockingbird" is a highlight. Marc Cary is on the piano for the set.

Fridays at 9 p.m.

4 Dianne Reeves - Vocalist Dianne Reeves is one of the finest singers on the scene today, with a style that combines brilliant musicality, improvisational expertise, and influences from both jazz and R&B. Her rich voice conveys a broad range and depth of emotion, whether she's singing pop tunes, blues numbers, or improvised vocal works. She and McPartland get together on "Million Dollar Secret" and "Some Other Spring."

11 Russ Kassoff - Pianist, arranger, and conductor Russ Kassoff may not be a household name -- perhaps because he's spent decades at a time playing behind such stars as Frank Sinatra and Liza Minnelli. His piano playing is elegant and swinging as he performs "Lady Be Good." Kassoff joins McPartland for a piano duet of Ellington's "In a Mellow Tone."

18 Ann Hampton Callaway -- Pianist and singer/songwriter Ann Hampton Callaway (pictured) is a multi-talented artist who defies categorization. She is equally at home singing jazz, pop, or cabaret. An award-winning songwriter, Callaway's compositions are as impressive as her rich, refined voice and three-octave vocal range. She displays her talents by performing her own tune "Slow," before joining McPartland on "Teach Me Tonight."

25 John Proulx - The jazz scene is abuzz about singer/pianist/composer John Proulx. His piano playing is hot and swinging, and his voice recalls the smooth mellow sounds of Chet Baker. He shows off his compositional skills, performing his own tune "Stuck in a Dream with Me." He also performs the title tune from his latest album "Moon and Sand."
